

A rare opportunity to hear two eminent experts:-

Emmaus Oxford would like to invite you to 2 winter lectures

Lecture One – November 10th 2006

“The Principles, Problems and Prospects of Stem Cell Research”

Presented by Professor Sir Richard Gardner: Royal Society Research Professor at the University of Oxford and President of the Institute of Biology. Regarded internationally as one of the pioneers of Embryonic Stem Cell Research.

Lecture Two – February 2nd 2007

“Globalisation and Polarisation – Where is the World Heading?”

Presented by Sir Jeremy Greenstock: Director of the Ditchley Foundation. UK Representative at the UN (1998 – 2003) and then UK Special Envoy for Iraq (Sept 2003-Mar 2004).

Venue: Said Business School by kind permission of Professor Colin Mayer

Time: 7pm drinks and canapés 7.30pm Lecture

Tickets are available for £25 or with student concession for £10.

Please send your order to:

Emmaus Oxford
169 Oxford Road
Oxford
OX2 6EN

Or contact Margaret Brown at:

Email: emmausoxford@tiscali.co.uk
Tel: 01865 402073